² As is customary, Paul, Weiss revised its hourly rates on October 1st in both 2016 and 2015 at the start of the Firm's fiscal year. The rates in this table reflect the current rates, but the firm used its previous hourly rates for the work performed during the periods of July 15, 2015 through September 30, 2015 and October 1, 2015 through September 30, 2016, and, therefore, the total compensation attributed to any given professional may not equal the number of hours billed multiplied by the hourly billing rate displayed in this Schedule 1.
